Double Tobacco Breaks All Day at Wilson.

[Special to The Times Dispatch.] Wilson. S. C. September 11—The Wilson graded school opened yesterday with an eurolment of 600 pupils, the largest in the history of the school The enrollent coopening day last year was 501. The school has a faculty of eighteen, including the superfudent, Professor Gray King.

The sales of leaf tobacco were one of shout ten cents. The Wilson market has double sales, and it required the entire day to sell the big breaks to-day. Last week 1,250,600 pounds of tobacco were sold on the Wilson warehouse floors, and it is a certainty that the sales this week will exceed 1,000,000.
